

Hello,
Many congratulations on the imminent arrival of your new pup.

Over 700 pieces of nutritional analysis help ensure that dogs fed an Able diet have the very best chance of long term good health. Nutritional analysis is the foundation of all our delicious recipes, we know what it takes too help puppies thrive. Our food looks great and tastes great. We never use preservatives, colourings or flavourings. We only use nutritional additives where our analysis demonstrates a clear nutritional need. Ingredients and full detailed analysis of each recipe can be viewed within the individual product pages.

We have put together a puppy pack for you which we hope you will order to arrive before your puppy does.

Your puppy pack includes a full mixed box of food around 4kg depending on the portion size required. You will also receive a free feeding bowl, whistle and some biodegradable poo bags.

To claim your free puppy pack, click on the link below. The puppy pack will already be in your basket so you just need to fill out your details and check out. Our puppy packs normally cost over £30 plus £6.95 shipping, but for new owners that have a puppy from one of our breeders, we only charge £1.95 shipping.
